Hi,

For your records, the fact sheets that Kaitlin and I sent to OCIR earlier this afternoon are attached. We have 3 more of the non-priority subset (pollinators, ESA and GenX) still in the works.

Cheers

Hi Matt,

Attached are OCSPP's fact sheets. You will notice that we have added some additional ones. For example, we include the TSCA Implementation fact sheet as requested but also add Existing Chemicals and New Chemical Reviews fact sheets to cover the most salient points. We do have 3 more of the non-priority subset (pollinators, ESA and GenX) in the works. Let us know of any questions.

Cheers

Mary and Kaitlin,

Hope your Friday's going well. Any chance you're both free for a quick chat at some point between now and the end of the afternoon?

Also wanted to make sure you've seen the note below, which has additional guidance on fact sheets. Things are a moving target, but hopefully we can talk things through for a few minutes.

On a related note – attached is a spreadsheet (see the OCSPP tab) that helps make a bit more sense of the full list of topics in the original fact-sheet list, and then the specific ones in Troy's email from yesterday. Sven also had a couple suggested additions I've added to the sheet in bold. (But again, probably easiest to talk this through quickly, given all the info going around; let me know when might work to chat.)

Thanks,
Matt

Colleagues—we have discussed the format for briefing the Administrator ahead of his August 1st EPW hearing. As I mentioned, OCIR staffers are currently working with their counterparts in your respective program offices to update and develop fact sheets for the issues listed below.

One Pagers: You program offices will be directed to break the briefing material into three put the briefing material in the following format:

- Background—please provide a brief background on the issue
- Key Points—what are key points the Administrator needs to know on the issue (contentious issue, upcoming actions, impacted parties, is this a parochial issue, history with specific Member, etc)

- Talking Points—these need to be clear and specific. Also the points should be worded so he can read directly from the page, if needed Briefing: To ensure you are prepared for the briefing format will be divided in two portions 1) Briefing 2) Q&A.

Format: Each program office will be given a specific time slot (TBD) to brief the Administrator on the issues listed below. The Administrator would like the first ¾ of the prep time to be dedicated to program staff briefing him on the issues. The final ¼ of the time slot will be a Q&A. Each program office should prepare about 20-25 minutes of questions to quiz the Administrator.

Dates:

- Thursday, July 26: Program Office Briefings
- Friday, July 27 Program Office Briefings
- Monday, July 30 or Tuesday, July 31: Mini-Murder Board

Mini-Murder Board: The last piece of the preparation will be a mini-murder board. It will not be as formal as our nominee murder boards, but it will be two hours of questioning the Administrator on topics we expect to be raised on August 1st. This will likely occur on July 31. Please let us know if you would like to participate.

This is a great team effort to get the Administrator ready for his first hearing. Thank you for your contributions—especially with such quick turnaround.

Many thanks,

Troy

As I mentioned yesterday—OCIR's career liaisons have reached out to their counterparts in your respective program offices for updated fact sheets. For your reference, you will find a list of topics for which we will need to brief the Administrator. You will receive an invitation from scheduling once we lock in times to brief Andrew.

Please let us know if you have any questions or wish to discuss further.

We also need to involve our career program office leads in these prep sessions as well. Certainly Charlotte and Barry in particular and I'd of course defer to the political heads of other program offices to determine briefer attendees.

Please hold close--the Administrator has confirmed August 1st for his first hearing before EPW. This is a quick turnaround, so we will need everyone's assistance in preparing the Administrator.

Chris Beach—could you please work on both written and oral testimony outlining the Administrator's priorities for the agency? Tony and Christian can provide any assistance you may need.

Program Offices—OCIR has reached out to the program offices today to update the one pagers by next Wednesday, July 25. This will give a full weekend for the Administrator to review the material. We will schedule hearing prep the week of July 30th.
